

LAURA S. PLATT

lplatt@daleymohan.com 312-422-5371

Laura represents Class I railroads, corporate clients and small business clients in FELA, personal injury, labor and employment, and professional liability. Laura is experienced in representing clients in Title VII claims of discrimination and retaliation; alleged violations of the FRSA, ADA, ADEA, FMLA, and FLSA, and their corresponding State law counterparts; trade secrets; breach of contract; non-compete agreements; and insurance coverage issues. Laura is licensed in Illinois and Wisconsin, and represents clients in state and federal courts including success at the appellate level, as well as before state and federal agencies. Laura is experienced in understanding complex medical issues through representing clients in FELA and personal injury matters.

Prior to joining Daley Mohan Groble, Laura represented insured and self-insured defendants including doctors, hospitals and other medical providers in Medical Liability and Employment cases. Laura defended her clients in cases involving emergency room care, various types of cancer, orthopedic surgery and psychiatric treatment.

Laura has significant experience understanding complex medical issues through representing her clients in FELA, personal injury and medical malpractice matters. Laura also draws from a wealth of experience defending clients in employment and labor matters.
